

CORA online workshop series. WS4: Stakeholder and Citizen Participation

Thursday, 1 December 2022, 13:30 – 15:30 CET

Agenda

13:30 10 min

Opening and welcome

Introduction to the workshop topic and the CORA project

Christina Rundel, University of Groningen, The Netherlands

13:40 25 min

Presentation and discussion

Local businesses as stakeholders- experiences from a COM<sup>3</sup> pilot

Kyrre Einar Hegg, Vinje municipality and researcher at USN, Norway

You will get to know more about the efforts of Vinje municipality to establish a platform for a better exchange with and among local businesses

14:05 25 min

Presentation and discussion

Yes In My BackYard- Climate case from Denmark with digitalisation perspectives

Morten Westergaard and Lone Kjestrup Smith, Middelfart municipality, Denmark

You will hear about bottom-up initiatives in the municipality of Middelfart, working towards a low-carbon society, and the importance of a good digital infrastructure in this context

14:30 10 min

Break

14:40 35 min

Presentation and discussion

Bottom-up broadband initiatives and the importance of 'going out there'

Jon Løbner, Syddjurs municipality and Anne Risom, Norddjurs municipality, Denmark

You will receive interesting insights by these two neighbouring municipalities. This will include outreach activities by committed public servants and more information about bottom-up broadband initiatives

15:15 5 min

Break

---

15:20 10 min Summary and take home messages
Dr. Koen Salemink, University of Groningen, The Netherlands

All input gathered throughout the sessions will be summarized and take home messages formulated.

---

15:30 End of workshop

---